Hear The Word Of The Lord (Amos 3:1-15)

Read Amos chapter 3

1. Why do you think this word of judgement begins with the reminder of who Israel is to God?
2. How does the series of questions in 3:3-6a prepare them to respond to the final question in verse 6b?
3. Why do you think God reveals his plans to his prophets?
4. In verse 9, two of Israel's enemies (Ashdod was a Philistine city) are called to come and witness her sins.
 - a. What would they see?
 - b. What do you think they were supposed to learn from seeing God's judgement on Israel?
5. How is it possible that God's people do not know how to do right (v10)?
6. What form will God's punishment take?
7. What details do verses 12-15 add to the picture of destruction?
8. What would be the right response to this word from the Lord?

Read Hebrews 1:1-3 and Matthew 7:24-27

9. What further word has God given to us?

10. What is the right response to the word given through Jesus?

11. Is there anything you've been hearing from God's word recently that you really need to pay more attention to? What needs to happen to make you obey?
