

Synod of the Diocese of West Malaysia

St Mary's Cathedral

Making disciples of Jesus Christ

Victory Assured (Revelation 19:11-21)

Read Revelation 19:11-16

1. From the previous verses we might expect to see the bridegroom, or the Lamb (19:7). Who are we presented with here?
2. Each element of this description has been seen before. [Helpful references from Revelation include 1:14; 1:16; 2:18; 3:7; and 17:14. Also see Isaiah 63:1-6 and 11:1-5; Hebrews 4:12-13; John 1:1-3, 14; and Psalm 2.]

Take time to consider the details and discuss what they communicate about Jesus.

3. Who is with Jesus as he rides out to conquer?

Read Revelation 19:17-21

4. Who is revealed as the opponent of Jesus?
5. What do you notice about the battle?
6. What are we told will happen to the beast and the false prophet?
7. Jesus didn't need or use the armies of heaven. Why do you think they were there?
8. This is a chapter of contrasting pairs – two women, two suppers, two armies following two leaders. How do these contrasts help us choose a side? How do they help us stay faithful to Jesus when the beasts seem to be winning?

Bonus:

The prophesy of Ezekiel 38-39 forms a backdrop to Revelation 19 and 20. Take some time to read it and notice how the images are developed in the visions given to John.
